

Let's give it another shot... This time for Chelo González!

Everybody's favorite drummer, artist supreme and super great guy could use a little boost by this great group that follow this newsletter.

He had everything set to go to fix up his little old VW beetle when his dear sister took ill... Chelo to the rescue... but alas the "dub" is still not a go!

Next his son Max (whom many of us has met) has got a serious problem that requires surgery and Chelo is doing everything he can now to help his son... like we all would... well what say, we all will.

I am thinking to, while we are at it, putting him a little ahead and hopefully be able to afford getting the little VW fixed up too!

He has sold off a bunch of his wonderful paintings at our gig at La Bodega last Tuesday and I thank all (I got a beauty to add to my collection of Chelo's paintings) who jumped in on that.

I still have the account at O'Rourke and Associates in the Laguna Mall and the number to make a donation is 5057575 or you can see Paul Brier or myself at Adelita's on Monday nights or La Bodega on Tuesday nights. You could also do yourself and Chelo a big favor and buy one of his very, very unique paintings... did you know he recently sold some over in a gallery in France?... Yup and they were no doubt sold a lot higher than here!

Thanks in advance!

LIVE THEATRE

Unfortunately, Lakeside Little Theater has had to cancel our first Main Stage show of the season, Lunenburg.

The theatre was faced with a number of events in one short week that forced us to make the very difficult decision to cancel the first show of the season. We unavoidably lost two of the three actors on short notice. We found two excellent replacements who agreed to do a staged reading of the play, with props, set, lights and sound. However, when the director was uncomfortable continuing in this mode and resigned, we felt that it was best for the theatre and our audiences to cancel the show.

A separate email will be sent to all season ticket holders to advise you how we will compensate for the loss of the first show of the season.
