

“A sign of a great musician is they always seem to be able to bring out the best in other musicians. They help people accentuate their strengths and encourage them to work hard on their weaknesses. Their goal seems to always be to help other musicians up, never putting them down.”

www.musicianurlife.com

Boy does this ever describe... Paul Brier!

I saw this today and just had to run it in this issue... Paul Brier was not only able to play 13 instruments very, very well... he had played with groups like Jerry Lee Lewis, Fats Domino, Charlie Daniels and more. He wrote, recorded and played all the instruments in the National Geographic films.

He could read a crowd unbelievably and keep hitting them with tune after tune they would love... AND come back for more.

He had a great influence on local musicians like Jonathan Guzman and produced and played for Ricardo's Elvis shows and many others... RIP my dear, dear friend.

 Tuesdays noon-2pm

at the Huerto Cafe: Hidalgo 212 in Riberas del Pilar

Expert mandolinist Jan Reimers and multi-instrumentalist Jeffree White share a love of bluegrass, but also much more music than that! They present a variety of instrumental & vocal music, inspired by David Grisman's "Dawg music", vintage swing, fiddle tunes, exotic waltzes, Latin rhythms, some classic rock, and traditional bluegrass with vocal harmonies -- and plenty of lively, hot pickin'!
